

WEDDING REVIEWS ~ AT GHAN HOUSE

"We had our civil partnership at Ghan House. It really was superb in every way. Each time we visited the house while planning for our day Paul, both Sarah's and Orla were extremely helpful. All of our questions and concerns were met with gentle reassurance. We also felt that they listened and helped us plan a day which we hoped would feel like a big party. The house itself looked fantastic on the day. The ceremony in the house was informal and relaxed surrounded by friends and family. A definite highlight for ourselves and our guests was the drinks reception followed by speeches on the lawn. We worried that perhaps the day would feel disjointed as we ate in separate rooms however this did not in any way affect the atmosphere and ensured that the quality of food and excellent service was maintained throughout the meal. Likewise the band playing in an upstairs room with the bar and lounge areas downstairs meant that guests could dance, mingle and relax as they wished. The dance floor never emptied and we definitely had the party we wanted. A big thank you to the best barman!!!! Nothing but good feedback from all of our guests. This is certainly an amazing venue."

"Really cannot thank you enough for everything on our wedding day. Paul promised us it was a "great party house" & he was not wrong. There were no disappointments, the day was fantastic from start to finish. We had a wedding of 40 guests with 100 evening guests who were met with a Prosecco reception & bbq ~ a bbq to end all bbq's! Such an amazing atmosphere, staff are brilliant, so friendly & obliging. Just an amazing day, fantastic venue & cannot recommend Ghan House highly enough. Thank you so much x"

"Myself and my husband got married in Ghan House on the 25th of July 2014. We were recommended it by a friend of the family and straight away both Stephen and I fell in love with the house and its beautiful location. We booked it exclusively for the day and stayed the night before and after with our guests. The staff were brilliant from day one, Sarah, Orla and Paul couldn't have been more helpful. They made our decisions and planning easy, replying to every query and change promptly. On the day, we were extremely happy with how everything went. We had a humanist ceremony in the garden, the sun shone and it felt like a fairy tale. We had 40 guests, including several children and toddlers, the staff couldn't have done enough, their personalities and professionalism throughout the day was amazing. All of our guests raved about the food and atmosphere. In the evening, we had another 80 guests arrive for drinks, dancing and buffet. All great comments about the food and setting again. We were initially worried about the extra guests fitting into the house, but having the whole house and gardens meant all our guest were free to roam and everyone was very comfortable. Throughout our three night stay Paul was wonderful with all the family, young and old. We couldn't thank the Ghan House enough for making our day so special."

"We got married here at the beginning of August and couldn't fault a thing. The professionalism shown by the team in Ghan House was outstanding. The service, venue and food was second to none. We booked all the bedrooms for our family and they absolutely loved them. The rooms were beautiful, spotless, comfortable and no one wanted to get out of their beds the next day as they were so comfortable. We had 50 guests at our wedding and it was the ideal venue and felt so intimate. Olavi (front of house) watched over the venue all night so we knew it was only our guests that were on the grounds which made us feel very secure. The grounds and rooms are perfect for photos and we never felt rushed at any stage. i can't recommend Ghan House enough. there is absolutely nothing we would change about the wedding, we had a ball and this is thanks to the brilliant staff in Ghan House."

My wife and I recently had our wedding reception at Ghan House and we could not have been more happy with every single aspect.... The food was beautiful - so good that our friends and family are still talking about it two weeks later, with several commenting that it was by far the best food that they had experienced at a wedding. We had an accident with transporting our cake on the day before our wedding and the chefs re-iced it! It looked fantastic and we were very happy and relieved.

The service was also fantastic. All of the staff were attentive but not intrusive, calm, patient, and professional and we felt confident that everything would happen when it needed too (and it did). The owner, Paul, was also great and his sense of humour and forethought were well appreciated. We loved the layout of the house - it felt homely and the different rooms and bar allowed one to enjoy different aspects of the day and it was very social. There was no issue with us having traditional music in the day, a band after dinner and more loud music late into the night.

We considered several venues for our reception but we are so happy that we chose Ghan House. The day really could not have gone any better than it did and we will definitely be returning for dinner.
